

The Old Ignatians Present

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel & Expo

7.00pm, Monday May 27, 2024
MacKillop Senior Centre

The Old Ignatians
Connect. Assist. Belong.

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Alysha Kitchingman

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to once again welcome 2014 Alumna Alysha Kitchingman to our 2024 Careers Panel and Expo. Alysha, who was guided by Anthony Gravener as her Year 12 homeroom teacher completed Bachelor of Music (Musical Theatre), over 3 years at the Australian Institute of Music (AIM) Melbourne, and has taught singing lessons for the past 5 years. Alysha would tell her Year 10 self 'to do whatever makes you happy, not what others say you should do.'

Saint Ignatius College looks forward to welcoming Alysha back to the Careers Panel as she once again inspires our students in the arts domain.

Douglas Harvey

Saint Ignatius College is excited to once again welcome 2007 Alumnus Douglas Harvey to the SICG Careers Panel and Expo. Douglas completed a Bachelor of Paramedicine, over 3 years at Australian Catholic University - Melbourne, embraced the opportunity of a GAP Year after completing Year 12, exploring many different jobs in his endeavour to find his chosen career. Douglas has worked as a paramedic for the last 5 years and recalls his interactions with Mr McLean whilst at the College as 'exacting when required, understanding when needed.' We look forward to welcoming Douglas back to the College to share his journey beyond Peninsula Drive.

Monique Campbell

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to welcome 2014 Alumna Monique Campbell back to the College to inspire our students for the 2024 SICG Careers Panel and Expo. Under the guidance of homeroom teacher Malcolm Campbell Monique embraced a tertiary education after completing VCE. Monique, a Doctor of 3 years (obstetrics and gynaecology pathway) completed a Bachelor of Science and Postgraduate Medicine at the University of Melbourne, encourages senior students to 'follow your areas of interest and you'll find your way to a career you enjoy.' Saint Ignatius College is excited to welcome Monique to the College this year.

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Cameron Donald

Saint Ignatius College is thrilled to welcome 2022 Alumnus Cameron Donald to the College as part of our 2024 Careers Panel Evening. Cameron, who was always an avid aviation enthusiast, now works at Jetstar as a Customer Service Officer. Cameron recalls the guidance he received from WAFE Coordinator Bruce Connor recalling that Mr Connor 'inspired him the most as he always went out of his way to support him in finding different employment options within the aviation industry, including different courses that he could complete to become a pilot. Mr Connor was always happy to talk to me about my different options and supported Cameron a lot during my search for work experience within the aviation industry.' Saint Ignatius College is excited to welcome Cameron back to the College for our 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening.

Harley Corless

Saint Ignatius College Geelong is looking forward to welcoming 2022 Alumnus Harley Corless to our 2024 SICG Careers Panel. Harley, a graduate of Bu Hall's homeroom, is currently completing a Bachelor of Science with a double major in Mathematics and Physics, and has also been accepted to continue my studies with a Masters in Teaching Practice for secondary schools. This course will take a total of 5 years to complete at RMIT city campus. We look forward to welcoming Harley back to the College for the 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening.

Lachlan Borley

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to welcome 2013 Alumnus Lachlan Borley to the College to present as part of our 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening. Lachlan, a graduate of Mr Malcolm Campbell's homeroom completed a Bachelor of Science at Deakin University and has worked in the field of project management for the past 5 years. Inspired on his academic journey by Joe McLean and Anthony Fitzgerald, Lachlan encourages students to 'try a bit harder at study, but also invest yourself in your interests and be open to new ones.' We look forward to welcoming Lachlan to the College for the 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening.

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Blake Drever

Saint Ignatius College is excited to welcome 2011 VCAL student Blake Drever back to the College for the 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening. Blake completed a Bachelor of Horticulture at the Gordon Institute of TAFE and has been working as a farm manager for over 5 years. Blake, inspired by Jennifer Guinane encourages students to 'stay at school and make the most of the opportunities it avails you.' This is the second year that we have welcomed Blake to the College for the 2024 SICG Career Panel Evening, and we thank him again for his time and valued contribution to the evening.

Dylan Vigilante

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to welcome 2021 Alumnus Dylan Vigilante to the College as part of our 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening. Dylan, inspired by Mrs Sleep, Mrs Allen-Emery, and Mr Ryan is currently completing a BA of Politics, Philosophy and Economics, whilst working as a political staffer. Dylan, who completed a week of diesel mechanics as part of his Year 10 work experience reflects on the 'flip' of course selection. We look forward to welcoming Dylan back to the College as he inspires our students on his chosen course, and his experiences of living 'on res.'

Dylan Crawley

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to welcome back 2017 Alumnus Dylan Crawley for our 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening. Dylan, a graduate of Ms Dart's Year 12 homeroom has completed a Bachelor of Cyber Security, over 3 Years at Deakin University, Waurin Ponds. Dylan enjoyed working at Walt Disney World for 6 months as part of their Cultural Exchange Program, is currently working in Cyber Security Engineer - Department of Defence. Saint Ignatius College is excited to welcome Dylan to the 2024 SICG Careers Panel Evening.

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Brenden Borosh

The 2024 President of The Old Ignatians Dr Brenden Borosh was a graduate of Saint Ignatius College Geelong in the 2010 academic year. Since Brenden's graduation at the College, he has completed a Bachelor of Biomedical Science at Deakin University, a Bachelor of Science (Hons; 1 year at University of Melbourne/ Ludwig Institute), and a Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery (4 years at Deakin Uni).

Brenden is currently a ICU Registrar, a recent appointment, and has been a doctor at Barwon Health since 2020. Brenden acknowledges the wisdom passed on by Mr Anthony Fitzgerald and Mr Smith and recalls that some of their classroom content is still remembered fondly to this day.

Brenden has championed this evening, the second SICG Careers Panel, and hopes that the evening is insightful and beneficial to current Saint Ignatius College students in Years 9-12 and their families.

Jacqui Thebes

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to welcome 2014 Alumna Jacqui Thebes back to the College as she presents on the '2024 SICG Careers Panel & Expo.' Jacqui, who embraced 3 jobs during her 'Gap Year,' has completed a Bachelor of Communication (Public Relations) at Deakin University, and is currently employed as a Community Engagement Adviser at Barwon Water, a position that she has held for 3.5 years. Inspired on her journey by Mr Bruce Connor, the College excitedly welcomes Jacqui back to the College for this exciting night.

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Hannah Bosch

Saint Ignatius College is excited to welcome 2014 Alumna Hannah Bosch to the College as she presents as part of the '2024 SICG Careers Panel & Expo.' Hannah completed a Bachelor of Nursing at Deakin University over 3 years, before completing a Postgraduate Diploma of Midwifery at Federation University over 1 year. Hannah embraced the opportunity to travel as part of her Gap Year, before commencing her tertiary studies. Inspired on her Ignatian journey by Mr Byron Mitchell, Hannah now works as a Registered Nurse and Midwife. The College looks forward to welcoming Hannah back to the College as she inspires our current students to 'strive for the Magis.'

Darcy Hewitt

If you are unsure if you want to embrace a TAFE course, or a tertiary course, this is the panellist that you want to listen to! Saint Ignatius College is delighted to once again welcome Darcy Hewitt to the Careers Panel & Expo. Darcy, who was a graduate of the 2016 academic year embraced the opportunity to travel around North America and Canada during his Gap Year, before completing a Bachelor of Construction Management Honours, before undertaking a 3 year apprenticeship in Carpentry.

Darcy who now works as a Site Engineer for John Holland, utilising both his apprenticeship and degree for this role is a valued member of the College's alumni, who consistently embraces the opportunity to support his former College. For those unsure what journey to take beyond Year 12, Darcy is the panellist that you want to meet!

The Saint Ignatius College Careers Panel

Panellists

Caroline Smith

Saint Ignatius College is delighted to once again welcome 2011 Graduate Caroline Smith to our Careers Panel & Expo Evening. Caroline was a graduate of Karen Perkin's Year 12 homeroom and has since gone on to complete a 3 year Cert II in Hospitality Studies at the Gordon Institute of Tafe.

Caroline, who was inspired on her academic journey by Lyndall Taylor, Ray Lillingston, Bill Miles, Rebekah Spencer-Pill, and Stacey Learmonth, will once again join the TAFE panel for this evening.

Aidan Jones-Murphy

Aidan Jones-Murphy graduated from the College in 2010 under the guidance of homeroom teacher Mrs. Fran Kealey before embarking on a Bachelor of Biomedical Science (Honours) at Deakin University. Following on from the successful completion of this degree Aidan undertook a Doctor of Medicine (MD) at the University of Queensland.

Aidan currently works as a Psychiatry Registrar (Doctor) at Barwon Health, and has held this position for the past 9 months.