

Sacred Heart
College
GEELONG

Empowering Women Dinner

Thursday 12 September at 6.30pm

McAuley Hall, The Costa Centre for Performing Arts

Please join us for dinner to support our 'Empowering Women' partnership programs with CTID Girls College in Baucau, Timor-Leste and Jabira Area School in the Northern Territory.

Guest speaker: Kirsty Sword Gusmão AO

- Translator for the clandestine freedom movement in Timor
- Founder of the ALOLA Foundation
- Former First Chair for the Timor Commission for UNESCO
- Former Goodwill Ambassador for Education for Timor
- Founder of the HALIKU Cancer Support Group in Timor-Leste
- Recipient of the Officer of the Order of Australia (AO)
- Recipient of the Order of Timor-Leste

Tickets

$55 each, including two-course dinner and drink on arrival (additional drinks at bar prices).

RSVP

Please RSVP by Monday 2 September 2019.

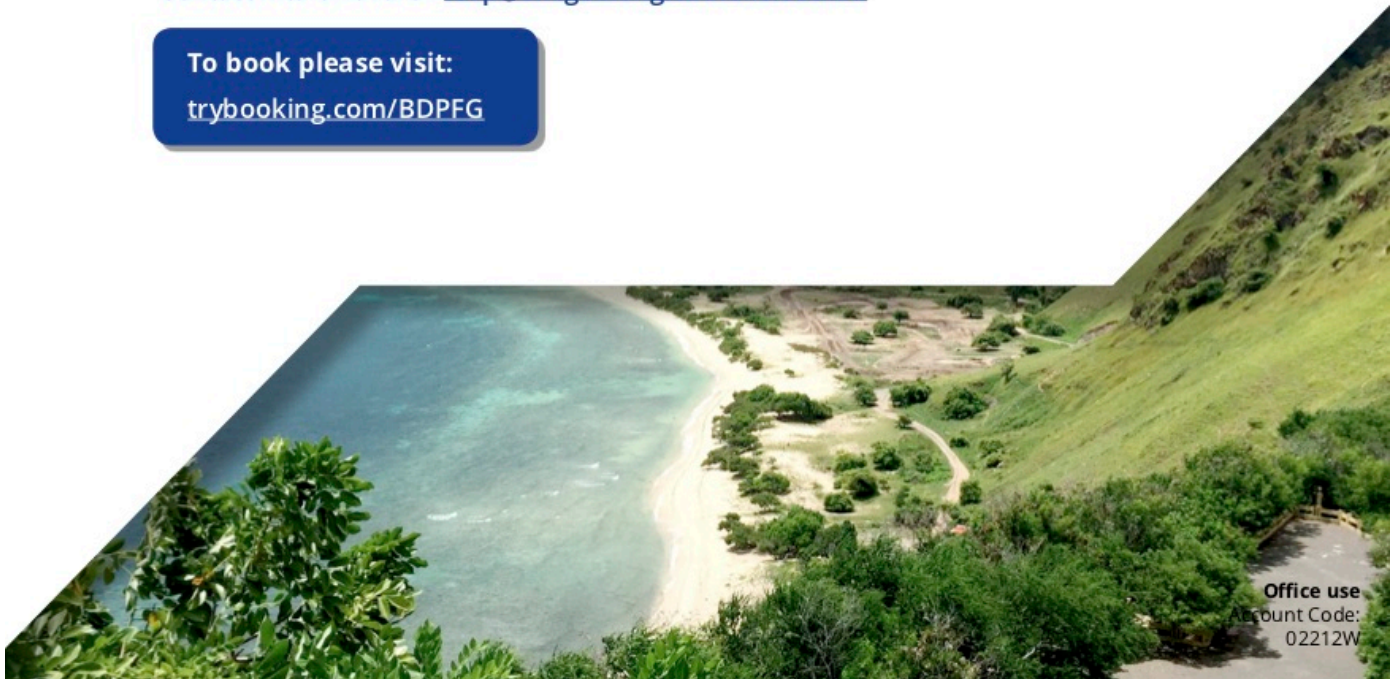

Please note that late replies cannot be accepted and any replies received after the RSVP date will be placed on a cancellation list. Tickets to this event are limited and as this is a highly-anticipated SHC event, we encourage you to book your tickets early.

Enquiries

Contact Rita Chiavaroli rsvp@shcgeelong.catholic.edu.au

To book please visit:

trybooking.com/BDPFG

Please join us at a dinner to support our 'Empowering Women' partnership programs with CTID Girls College in Baucau, Timor-Leste and Jabira Area School in the Northern Territory. Our guest speaker for the evening is Kirsty Sword Gusmão AO, former First Chair for the Timor Commission for UNESCO and Founding Director of the Aloia Foundation.

 Please note that late replies cannot be accepted. Any replies received after the RSVP date will be placed on a cancellation list.

On Thursday 12 September 2019 at 6:30pm

LOCATION

Sacred Heart College Geelong
McAuley Hall, The Costa Centre for Performing Arts , Aphrasia Street, NEWTOWN, VIC 3220

CONTACT DETAILS

CONTACT EVENT ORGANISER

